Please note: Colorado School Entrance Immunization Law requires all students to provide proof of immunizations to attend school. A student may be suspended from school if proof of up-to-date immunizations is not provided.

- If an immunization is against your religious beliefs, you must sign a religious exemption.
- If your child cannot receive an immunization for medical reasons, a physician must sign a medical exemption.
- If you have personal beliefs opposed to an immunization, you must sign a personal exemption.

Exemption forms can be obtained from the health assistant or Registered Nurse at your child's school.
